

WATTS HALL COMMUNITY PLAYERS

Announces Auditions for the play:

“You Can’t Take It with You”

Written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman

Directed by Lois Pernice

Auditions: Saturday, January 4th 10 am -12 pm or Sunday January 5th 2 -4 pm.

Auditions will be held at Watt’s Hall 174 Main St. in Thomaston, Maine and will be held in a supportive group environment. Please plan on arriving at the start of the audition session you plan to attend.

Performances: Sat. March 1 at 7 pm, Sun., March 2 at 3 pm, and
Fri. & Sat. March 8 & 9 at 7 pm

Rehearsals: Sunday afternoons and Wednesday evenings (and likely a third - day and time tbd). Not all cast members will be required to attend every rehearsal.

“You Can’t Take it with you” is the story of a not-what-you-would-call “typical” family, the Sycamores. They are a collection of contented eccentrics who make fireworks, write but never finish plays, operate printing presses, and play the xylophone in pursuit of self-fulfillment. Among this mix of zany characters is one “normal” daughter who falls in love with her boss’s son. Upon her engagement, plans are made to introduce the two families. When her fiancé and his parents show up a day early, the collision between the quirky Sycamores and stolid Kirbys sets off hilarious absurdities and improbabilities. In the end, “You Can’t Take it With You” reminds us what is important in life - the wholehearted pursuit of Happiness.

*There are 9 male parts, 7 female parts, and 3 smaller parts of any gender. A list and description of the characters in the play can be found at the Community Players website:

<http://wattshallcommunityplayers.org/>. Note: the ages of the characters listed is flexible.

If you are interested in auditioning, but you cannot attend on those dates, contact “You Can’t Take It With You” director Lois at loispernice@gmail.com to schedule another day and or time.